

As a citizen of the USA and of the State of Indiana. I ask that you please respect my right to privacy. Please keep the current Indiana " Do Not Call List" law intact as it is at the present time 15 March 2005. This is one of the few rights and privilages that the average citizen still has over Big Business and the the Big Corporations.